

Young Immigrant Hamilton Tour

Visit to Boxwood Hall

Thursday, July 7, 2016, 10 am
Elizabeth, New Jersey

Join for a special Hamilton-focused tour of Boxwood Hall, where Alexander Hamilton stayed with the Boudinot family during his time as a preparatory school student in Elizabethtown,
New Jersey

As part of the house tour, you will see a special exhibition of Alexander Hamilton portraits and learn about one of the families that took in Hamilton after he immigrated from the Caribbean.

The tour will also highlight the newly-completed renovations to the house, including the installment of new period wallpaper and exhibits in the rooms.

Time: 10 am - 11:30 am
Date: Thursday, July 7th
Location: Boxwood Hall, 1073
E. Jersey St, Elizabeth, NJ

This is a stop on the “Young Immigrant Hamilton Tour,” part of CelebrateHAMILTON 2016.

CelebrationHAMILTON is an events program commemorating the life and legacy of Alexander Hamilton. The annual program is held by the Alexander Hamilton Awareness Society (the AHA Society) around the anniversary of the Hamilton-Burr duel (July 11th) and Hamilton's resulting death.

Visit celebratehamilton.com for more information.

Learn about Alexander Hamilton

Interested in discovering more about Alexander Hamilton? In addition to event programming, the AHA Society provides and shares information about Alexander Hamilton online.

Explore more!

Visit theAHAsociety.org &
allthingshamilton.com

Facebook.com/theAHAsociety
Twitter, Instagram, Periscope:
@theAHAsociety